

Eisenhower Says Tax Cut "Irresponsible"

Dulles Proclaims Firm Policy On Formosa At SEATO

U.S. Forces Sufficient To Meet Attack

By Olen Clements

BANGKOK, Thursday, Feb. 24 (AP) — U. S. Secretary of State Dulles reportedly stressed firm policy on Formosa yesterday before the Southeast Asia defense conference as a deterrent to Communist aggression.

Dulles also told the closed meeting the United States has mobile force in Asia adequate to cope with trouble anywhere in the Orient.

Near the windup of the first closed session on ways to deal with communism in Southeast Asia, Dulles was understood to have stressed that a soft policy on Formosa would only invite further Red aggression.

Britain's Sir Anthony Eden, informed sources said, omitted mention of Formosa in his opening speech. He did support Dulles on the need of an immediate meeting of military advisers for the Southeast Asia defense treaty, often called SEATO.

In Washington, President Eisenhower told his news conference that Dulles planned to confer with Eden at Bangkok on the Formosa situation.

(Peiping radio, in a broadcast heard in Tokyo, said Dulles was "expected to try to persuade other SEATO members to link Southeast Asian security with American strategy in the Formosa Straits." It was quoting foreign press reports.

(The broadcast repeated that "the Chinese people regard foreign intervention, in any form, in the liberation of Taiwan—Formosa—as a hostile act.")

Carlos P. Garcia, Philippine vice president and foreign affairs secretary, reportedly told the opening session his country backed a Formosan policy of "fight if we must."

He urged members to carry out immediately both military and economic phases of the treaty they signed at Manila.

Dulles, in his opening speech, is reported to have said if trouble arises in Southeast Asia, the United States already has the mobile force there to act.

His remarks were taken to mean the United States is not seeking a permanent type military force in Asia, as in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

A British source, summing up Wednesday's opening session, said the talks by delegation heads were only exploratory.

Thailand's foreign minister, Prince Wan Wattayakorn, who was elected chairman of the three-day conference, stressed the need for protection against both internal and external subversion.

Prince Wan said there was a definite threat to Thailand by Communist forces on its northeast borders.

The eight member nations—the United States, United Kingdom, France, Australia, New Zealand, the Philippines, Thailand and Pakistan—reportedly have these tasks:

Setting up a permanent council of foreign ministers; formation of military, economic and anti-subversive committees to carry out council decisions; and selection of a permanent site for a secretariat, a choice believed to rest between Manila and Bangkok.

Glass Sandwich Newest Fare For Attorneys

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 23 (AP) — An attorney ate a glass sandwich in Superior Court today to prove a legal point.

The lawyer's clients—actress Esther Williams and her husband, Ben Gage—own a Los Angeles restaurant where Ward E. Willcutt claims he was served ice cream containing some glass particles.

Willcutt seeks $51,239 damages because, he claimed, the particles injured him internally. Today Atty. Raymond G. Stanbury smashed up a piece of glass, made a sandwich of the pieces, and ate it.

He said it would prove Willcutt couldn't have suffered the injuries he claimed.

Churchill Warns Britain Against Pressing U. S. Too Far On Islands Surrender

LONDON, Feb. 23 (AP) — Prime Minister Churchill—in an apparent softening of his own government's policy—warned tonight against pressing the United States too far in insisting on surrender of China's offshore islands to the Reds.

He said there was no question of Britain being involved militarily in defense of the offshore islands and that "we should be careful of what advice we should offer to our friends and allies."

In a move apparently directed at smoothing British-American differences on the issue, Churchill spoke sharply to Laborites clamoring for surrender of the islands of Red China.

Churchill gave a written statement to the House after he verbally described as "scornful" Red China's refusal to attend a Security Council meeting on Formosa. He turned down a Laborite suggestion he intervene personally with Red China's Premier Chou En-lai.

At the same time Labor's National Executive Committee kept the controversy in the foreground by urging that Red China be given membership in the United Nations as a way of settling the explosive Far Eastern situation.

Churchill's remarks tended to back off somewhat from an earlier stand taken by his government. Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden has said publicly Britain regards the offshore islands as belonging to Red China and has privately urged U. S. Secretary of State Dulles to engineer an evacuation of the islands by Chinese Nationalist troops to help bring about a quick unwritten cease-fire.

The British had been advocating getting the Nationalists off the coastal islands of Matsu and Quemoy as a way of easing the threat of war. In New York last week Dulles said they should be defended as long as the Communists use them as an invading route to attack Formosa.

In addition to favoring Red China's membership in the U. N., the Laborites want neutralization of Formosa and the Pescadores and the exiling of Chiang. They ask Churchill's government to make it clear to the United States that in any hostilities over China's coastal islands, the Eisenhower administration cannot count on British assistance.

Edgar Faure, 46, Financial Expert, Attorney Elected Premier Of French Nation

PARIS, Feb. 23 (AP) — The French National Assembly tonight approved Edgar Faure, a 46-year-old financial expert and attorney, as the nation's new Premier.

By a vote of 369-210, the deputies accepted Faure as the successor to Pierre Mendes-France, who was turned out of office Feb. 5. Faure, who held the job in 1952 for six weeks, will head the 21st government in France's post-liberation history.

Adenauer Warns Party On Treaty

BONN, Germany, Feb. 23 (AP) — Chancellor Konrad Adenauer today threatened expulsion of the Free Democrats (FDP) from his four-party government unless they support the Paris agreement to Europeanize the Saar. A political crisis threatened as the Free Democrats, the No. 2 party, replied defiantly.

Adenauer's ultimatum was delivered on the eve of a parliamentary debate on the Paris accords to arm 500,000 West Germans in Western defense. The Saar deal, unpopular among many West Germans, is among those accords. The French insisted upon it as part of a package deal.

Adenauer's backers had hoped—until today—that some of the 47 FDP deputies would support the treaty to place the German-speaking border state under a neutral commissioner until the final peace treaty with Germany is written.

Free Democratic waverers now may rally behind their party leaders in voting against the pact. Adenauer's Christian Democrats alone, however, have 244 seats in the 487-seat House. The government bloc also numbers 27 of the Refugee party and 15 of the German party.

Mother Admits She Killed Two Sons Then Had Bodies Buried By Man As "Spoiled Venison"

HOUSTON, Tex., Feb. 23 (AP) — Slight Mrs. Ann Williams today calmly related how she slew her two young sons, kept their dismembered bodies for nearly a week and then had them buried as "spoiled venison."

"I'm ill and my husband's in prison. I couldn't take care of them. That's why I killed my boys," she said.

The attractive brunette, 28, was known here as a quiet, well-mannered person.

The only pious of opposition came from Communists and Socialists. Both Faure and Mendes-France are members of the Radical Socialist party, a badly splintered centrist group.

Earlier Faure had announced a Cabinet which included former Premier Antoine Pinay as foreign minister, Pierre Pflimlin as finance minister, former Premier Robert Schuman as justice minister and Gen. Pierre Koenig as defense minister.

The Cabinet has been labeled as one of the farthest to the right in postwar history, despite that Faure is classed a little left of center.

In his address of investiture, Faure pledged his government to work for ratification of the Paris treaties for German Rearmament as quickly as possible. The upper house of the French Parliament, the Council of the Republic, still must approve the treaties passed by the Assembly.

The program Faure announced today calls for new increases in industrial production, a seven per cent increase in the standard of living, balancing the foreign trade accounts, hikes in workers salaries by April, price supports for agricultural products and continuation of the fight against alcoholism.

Mice Don't Scare Elephants, Women

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 23 (AP) — For centuries man has clung to the theory, perhaps to bolster his ego, that elephants and women are afraid of mice. One half of that fable has been dealt a rude jolt by Emma, a large female elephant.

A boy in Glenfield, Pa., raised the question in a letter to a television stunt show and 50-year-old Emma, veteran of many a jungle movie, gave the answer. Emma, who weighs 2½ tons, knelt down and remained calm while three white mice were placed on her curled trunk.

Civil Defense Purchases By Region Heavy

CIVIL DEFENSE organizations in Monroe County have purchased equipment valued at $56,680 during the past three years, it was announced yesterday by local CD Headquarters. The purchases were made under the Federal Matching Funds plan.

Numerous area units have already reported plans for the addition of more such equipment during 1955. The amount allocated to Pennsylvania for the current fiscal year is $895,362.

Local Headquarters said yesterday that June 30 is the final date for the processing of this year's allotment. The greater part of the funds have been made available for the addition of communications equipment, including two-way radios and generators, and sirens or other warning device systems. The categories covered in the current purchases are engineering equipment, rescue tools and gear, health and special weapons, public education and emergency welfare.

"The FCDA has not allocated any funds this year for use in buying fire fighting equipment," stated Paul Crown, county executive director. "This," he pointed out, "is a federal decision. Requests for such equipment will be automatically turned down."

All the matching funds purchases have been made during Judge Fred W. Davis' term as county director. He is one of the few judges retaining such a post in the state. Many other such purchases are nearing the completion stage.

Stroudsburg is one of the few county sectors which has not taken advantage of the federal aid. All county requests for equipment have been approved. The units have two years in which to pay their share of the cost.

East Stroudsburg has purchased a new fire engine and communications gear valued at $15,780; Hamilton Township added a fire truck valued at $13,068 as did Pocono Township for $12,456.

Other additions include Buck Hill Falls, communications equipment for $3,738; Monroe County, communications, training and education material for $2,600; Kunkletown, fire and rescue gear worth $2,090; Smithfield Township, fire equipment for $1,444; Stroud Township, fire equipment valued at $1,082; and the townships of Polk and Chestnutville purchased fire needs at a cost of $236.

Civil Defense groups at Barrett, Kunkletown and East Stroudsburg are planning to further strengthen their support through the federal plan, while Stroud Township, Delaware Water Gap and West End are considering additional purchases. Many requests are currently pending for new equipment. The allocations are also open to public institutions such as fire companies and hospitals. Only cities and towns meeting CD standards are permitted to take advantage of the matching funds.

All such purchases for the ensuing year must be submitted prior to March 15 to State Council of Civil Defense. These requests must be channeled through the offices of local and county directors. The Federal Civil Defense Administration will accept applications for matching funds only from the state and its recognized political subdivisions. Only the FCDA has the power to approve or disapprove a request.

Marilyn Monroe To Ride Elephant

NEW YORK, Feb. 23 (AP) — The circus season will open next month with Marilyn Monroe astride a pink elephant.

Showman Mike Todd, known for previous spectacular enterprise, announced today that Miss Monroe would be his main star in an opening night charity performance of the Ringling Bros.-Barnum & Bailey Circus at Madison Square Garden March 30 on behalf of the New York Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation.

Clayton A. Johnson, 19, son of an Alcoa Tex., garage owner, yesterday buried four packages which Mrs. Williams told him were spoiled venison. But he became suspicious when he learned she and her two sons had been missing six days. He dug up the packages.

Mrs. Williams said she is a native of Hammond, Ind. Her husband, Hoyt J. Williams, 33, was sentenced in January to three years on federal car theft charges. They had been married 10 years.

Case Holds Off Support For Highways

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (AP) — Sen. Francis Case (R-SD), who introduced the administration's highway bill yesterday, said today he "cannot support it in its present form."

He said the President's proposal for a 101-billion-dollar highway program over the next 10 years was a "challenging" plan.

But, he added, the financing arrangements in the administration bill "posed some serious questions."

Ranking Democrats in the Senate already have assailed the financing plan. Under it a new federal borrowing agency would float 21 billion dollars worth of bonds to finance a 40,000-mile interstate highway network.

The administration bill calls for new federal spending of 25 billion dollars over the next 10 years to finance most of the cost of the interstate network. The federal government also would put up six billions for other road programs. The remaining 10 billions would come from the states.

Case said he had not read the bill when he introduced it on behalf of himself and Sens. Chavez (D-NM) and Martin (R-Pa). Neither Chavez nor Martin expressed themselves as necessarily favoring the bill.

The Senate Public Roads subcommittee held a hearing on highway legislation. Much of the session was devoted to a discussion of the President's proposal that revenues from federal gasoline and diesel taxes be "pledged" to pay off the federal government's 31-billion-dollar share in highway development.

Case said a section of the bill which would appropriate federal money over the years to pay off the bond issue is clearly out of order and he would try his hand at revising the bill.

Air Force Plane Drops In Flames In Missouri

WINDSOR, Mo., Feb. 23 (AP) — An Air Force four-engine plane which normally carries a crew of 12 men, crashed in flames about six miles north of here tonight. It was not known if there were any survivors. The nearby Sedalia Air Force Base said the plane was a KC97 tanker, believed to be stationed at the base.

First reports from the crash area indicated the plane was a B47 jet bomber.

Base officials said they had no other details.

Senators Vote 62-24 For 50 Percent Pay Raise Of $7,500

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (AP) — Senators voted themselves a 50 per cent pay raise today, from $15,000 a year to $22,500. The vote was 62-24. The prevailing argument was that living costs have gone up, and it wouldn't do to keep the pay so low that only a rich man could serve in Congress.

The Senate bill will have to be adjusted with a more liberal one voted by the House last week 283-118. The House voted to raise Congress members to $25,000.

Both bills continue a $3,000 income tax exemption granted members of the grounds they must maintain two homes. Both bills also would raise Vice President Nixon and House Speaker Rayburn from $40,000 a year to $45,000.

During Senate debate, Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) said few people "have any idea of the burdens carried by a senator."

He noted that nine members had died in the last Congress, and said "we have no vacations" and "it is very seldom we spend less than 12 or 14 hours in a working day."

Knowland said he was sure the people did not want to turn the Senate into a "rich man's club" and make it impossible for anyone to serve who does not have outside income.

Sen. Lehman (D-Lib. NY) said he was financially independent and the proposed pay raise would be "virtually meaningless" to him. Nevertheless, he said, he felt that he must vote for higher salaries "in justice to my colleagues, in fairness to the Congress and in consideration of the best interest of the country."

Sen. Williams (R-De) contended against a pay hike when the federal budget is consistently in the red.

The Senate bill would raise Chief Justice Earl Warren to $35,000 and the other justices to $34,500 from $25,500 and $25,000 respectively. The House bill makes it $35,500 and $35,000 respectively.

Judges of federal appellate courts, who now get $17,500, would receive $25,500 under the Senate bill, $25,000 under the House.

Federal district judges and judges on comparable U. S. courts, now paid $15,000, would get $22,500 under both bills.

Challenges Democrats To Separate Bill

By Ed Creagh

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (AP) — President Eisenhower blasted the Democrats' $20-a-person tax cut plan today. He called it the height of "fiscal irresponsibility."

He also accused the plan's backers of lacking the courage to submit a separate tax-cutting bill. Thus he challenged them to abandon their present tactic of putting it forward as an amendment to another tax measure backed by the administration.

In a series of vigorous and sometimes heated statements at a news conference, the President declared a further tax cut at this time—while the government is spending more than it takes in—would cut the value of the dollar and hurt the nation's economy.

"We simply cannot have this kind of thing in responsible government," he declared.

But Eisenhower said a tax cut should be possible next year if the budget deficit is reduced.

Eisenhower's tax comments—which drew from Democrats a reminder that the Republicans cut taxes last year in spite of an unbalanced budget—dominated a far-ranging news conference in which the President also said:

1. The United Nations must be kept going as a sort of laboratory in the search for peace even if "our opponents do deliberately use it as a propaganda platform." This was his reaction to a speech last night in which Republican Senate Leader Knowland of California contended the U. N. is not "an effective instrument of collective security."

2. He has no great optimism about agreement being reached at the U. N. arms limitation meeting opening in London this week. He said, in effect, that if ever the good faith of the Russians can be established this country "would like to put everything in the pot and go just as far as anybody else." But meantime, he said, this country sees no point in half-way measures such as banning further hydrogen bomb tests.

3. He personally looks askance on the idea of sending surplus wheat to the Soviet Union, but is having his advisers look into the idea. "I am afraid," the President said, "what the United States might mean as a fine gesture of good will could be twisted and turned to our disadvantage."

4. Secretary of State Dulles has "very clear and definite" plans to talk with British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and others at the Bangkok conference about possible settlement of the Formosa dispute. But he said he and Dulles make no forecasts about the outcome of the talks.

5. He is going to put his full strength behind the Paris agreement for bringing a rearmored Germany into the Western defense alliance, and "will take up alternatives afterwards." That was his reply to a question stemming from current delays in ratification of the Paris pact.

The tax controversy, popped up as soon as the President strode into his meeting with some 225 correspondents.

Eisenhower said that "by hard work" his administration has reduced the budget deficit from nearly 10 billion dollars to around 2½ billions.

"Now," he said, referring to the tax cut proposal, "we are going back to deficit spending, the most insidious thing that can happen to a free economy, and particularly in its bad effect on low income groups."

"In the last two years the cost of living has varied less than one-half of one per cent. From 1939 to 1953 the dollar went from 100 cents to 52 cents. It is that kind of thing that must be stopped if we are to preserve the principles on which this country was established."

Declaring a stable dollar is more important to lower income groups than to others, Eisenhower said:

A moment of silence was observed by the club in respect to the memory of Gerald P. O'Neill, hotel owner, who died Sunday morning.

The song period was in charge of Dr. Earl Willhoite and Numa Snyder.

The club was urged to attend the Community Concert Chorus performances at Stroudsburg High School auditorium Friday and Saturday nights of this week for the benefit of the General Hospital.

Reserve Police Hear Speakers

THE THIRD regular meeting of an organization which intends to apply for a charter as a "police reserve" unit in Monroe County was held Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the Italian Club.

Guest speakers were Dr. G. Raymond Hood, State Teachers College chemistry professor, and Tom Waring, Shawnee. The hydrogen bomb "fallout" and police handcuffs were the topics under discussion.

Spokesmen said a rifle club is being formed and that "range firing" will be undertaken. Guest speakers at the next meeting will be Dale Learn and Tom McCool.

Ice Ballerina Flees Czechs For Freedom

LINZ, Austria, Feb. 23 (P) — A pretty blonde Czech ice skating star said today she had everything but freedom and security in her Communist homeland. And she told newspapermen that's why she made a break seeking political asylum in the United States.

Miss Miroslava Nachodská, eluded her Czech political supervisor and teammates on a shopping trip in Vienna last Saturday. A cab driver helped her reach a U.S. refugee center in the American zone of Austria.

The blue-eyed ice ballerina said she had been considering escape to the West for years. Her opportunity came when she was sent to Vienna to take part in the recent 1955 world ice skating championships.

She said she hoped to get to the United States and possibly to Canada and continue her skating career. She gave her age as 22.

"I want to move about as I please and know that nothing but my skating ability will determine my standing."

Her parents live in Prague. A sister, Vera, 30, is an actress in the municipal theater in Prague-Karlín.

JOSEPH P. Viglione M. D. will be out of town Sat. Feb. 26 and Sun. Feb. 27 to attend Penn State Centennial.

Bubbles Takes Troubles To Washington

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (P) — Every problem seems to wind up in Washington, including the unusual troubles facing Bubbles Darlene.

Miss Darlene is an entertainer, an exotic dancer. Or, as she herself explains cheerfully, "That's just a nice name for a stripper."

Anyway, while she was dancing exotically in Nashville, Tenn., someone stole one of her suitcases. When the thief looked at his loot, he was in for a pleasant surprise.

"It contained all the pictures of me that I had had made for years," she said, "including some nudes taken in Cuba. I need them in this line of work, and some of them are absolutely irreplaceable."

Miss D. said she advertised in the Nashville papers, first offering

Miss Darlene is a platinum blonde with twinkling brown eyes and an infectious laugh. As unexotic Virginia Lachimia, she studied ballet, toe and tap dancing back in Minneapolis, and, she says, had no notion when she hired out as a dancer at the Rialto in Chicago that she was moving into burlesque. In less time than it takes to pull on a net stocking, though, she realized that burlesque pays off better than ballet.

In her own modest way, Miss

Darlene has helped this country's good neighbor, cultural exchange policy, for she believes she was the first to take burlesque to Cuba.

"They do things excellently down there," she said. "I rehearsed with a 22-piece orchestra. And when we opened, what a reception! Even the orchestra players were so carried away that one by one they dropped out to stand up and cheer. Finally only the piano player was left. The audience was standing up,

"Something New Every Day"

Senate Group Investigates Unemployment

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (AP)—The Senate Labor Committee today unanimously approved a resolution calling for an investigation of the causes of unemployment in the coal, railroad and other industries.

A subcommittee of three will be named in the near future to carry out the study.

Sen. Neely (D-W-Va.), sponsor of the resolution, is likely to be one member.

As originally proposed by Neely, the resolution would have authorized the subcommittee to investigate "increasing unemployment" in the nation.

The word "increasing" was deleted on motion of Sen. Purtell (R-Conn.).

It was understood the special subcommittee will not seek a separate fund, but will operate with the committee's regular staff and appropriation.

There are varying theories about the origin of St. Valentine's Day—that it grew out of an old Roman festival, commemorates a third-century martyr or marks the date of the supposed mating of all birds.

Kelley Calls For Probe On Oil Imports

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (AP)—Rep. Kelley (D-Pa.) called on President Eisenhower today "to rescue the American coal industry" from a "disastrous plight" by stopping imports of residual fuel oil from Venezuela.

Kelley said the Venezuela oil was coming into the country under an agreement negotiated by the executive department under the Kelley said the residual oil imports are undermining the coal industry.

He said the result was lower wages for coal miners and "all whose jobs are dependent upon coal."

Look To The Skies

fect that seven regional youths have been nominated by their Congressman Francis E. Walter of the 15th District in order to take competitive examinations for first appointments to the new Air Force Academy.

The list, as released by the office of Congressman Walter, prove that the youth of the land is still as enthusiastic about flight as ever, and belies the opinion of some pessimists that the younger generation have their eyes on the ground rather than on the skies.

This is obviously wrong, since there will be at least 300 young Pennsylvanians battling it out for the 15 appointments allowed our commonwealth for the first class to enter the new service academy at Colorado Springs.

Many of the youths, it seems, are already in the Air Force and are thus hopeful of continuing in their careers by attending the Air Force Academy, the so-called "West Point of the Air."

Others are not yet in uniform, but are obviously aware of the splendid opportunities afforded them through the competitive examinations which, should they be successful, will mean the first step on the way to Colorado with the initial class of embryo airmen.

It has become fashionable in some circles to express the belief that our young men have lost the spirit of many an earlier generation, the spirit of service to country. Especially, they argue, is this true where the new Air Force Academy is concerned.

Nothing could be less accurate, we are glad to see, and we wish the best of luck to the youngsters who have made their first move in the direction of their silver wings.

The Wire Tappers

In New York, a raid a few days ago disclosed an array of equipment capable of "tapping" every telephone line on six East Side exchanges. And it is more than incidental, no doubt, that many of the prominent and successful people who live in Manhattan happen to reside in the areas involved.

There has been enormous growth in the "private investigating" profession. To some members, tapping a free citizen's telephone is as simple as picking a lock.

The fact that reputable private detectives have ethics is cold comfort in view of the ease with which any scoundrel can learn the rudiments of the business. What does it matter to a crook whether he has a license, if he doesn't get caught?

Wire tapping by law enforcement officers is a delicate business, which the public has tolerated largely because of its usefulness in catching subversives. Even where evidence so obtained is admissible in other types of cases, there are restrictions on wire tapping and public distaste for it.

Those who invade privacy by wire tapping, for any reason less than the nation's security, deserve little consideration.

If we don't have enough laws to punish them, let's pass them. If the telephone companies and the police have tolerated them or co-operated with them, let them, too, feel the effect of an honest public's anger.

Easy On The Turn

The over-all highway accident rate has dropped in recent years, despite a great increase in traffic.

But W. Dean Keefer, an insurance company engineer in Chicago, has just reported a curious exception. He says deaths caused by cars failing to make a curve have increased 60 per cent since 1951, and even more than that in rural areas.

Many of our highways were designed for the automobiles of 20 years ago. When driving on them, especially when there is a curve ahead, it would seem a good idea to keep that in mind.

George Sokolsky Says...

Miscalculations Of Statesmen Are No Different From Mistakes Many Commit

The miscalculations of statesmen are no different from the mistakes that any of us make.

Statesmen are the same human beings that the rest of us are, except that they are supposed to be possessed of more information about important matters and a wider experience. It is not the possession of information that counts; it is the capacity to reason, to relate current material to the whole of human history, to grasp the impact of social forces and of psychological reactions to a pending matter that counts. Nations have been destroyed by the faulty judgment of those in power.

Of statesmen, it can only be said that some possess such judgment and some do not, and often history, distantly written, discovers the truth. Many of the calculations of European statesmen concerning their own and global affairs were influenced by their certainty that the United States would suffer a severe depression after World War II. Even as late as November 1953, "The Manchester Guardian," that palladium of British liberalism, published two articles on "Danger Signs of an American Slump."

The first article appeared on November 19, 1953 and here we are in the second month of 1955 and we ain't got no depression yet. Mr. Colin Clark said:

"The possible originating causes of depression—trifling or serious—in the American economy are now quite well understood by the ordinary well-informed man (though he may not be familiar with the economist's description of such causes as 'exogenous variables')."

Well, the American people never quite understood what Mr. Clark's "ordinary well-informed man" knew, with the result that we passed through the year 1954 without going to the Devil. Perhaps it is our ignorance that saved us. We just did not know how badly off we were, so we did nothing to make ourselves worse off. We just went on producing goods and helping Europe, including Great Britain, as though nothing were the matter with us. We did not know that we were as sick as Colin Clark diagnosed us to be. It is sad, indeed, that we are so unconscious of our defects, but somehow the Lord takes care of us, as He does of pigeons and drunks. In a learned editorial, "The Manchester Guardian" comments on the views of American economists: "... They expect to see between three and four million unemployed at certain periods of next year. Their reasons are much the same that Mr. Clark puts forward. But all of them, so far as we know, differ from him in one crucial point. They are convinced that the Government is able to take effective counter-action to prevent the recession from getting out of hand. This is where Mr. Clark makes his chief point. He admits that Washington has learned the lesson taught by Keynes in a depression, you must spend, not retrench. But if they are Keynesians, they are not Keynesians enough."

The truth of the matter is that the American consumer took care of the American market in 1954 and did not let it fall. It is true that the Administration failed to balance the budget, to reduce the national debt or to restore the value of the dollar as it has promised to do. But despite all that, we did not go broke and have, in fact, shouldered a heavier-than-ever budget, which while it has not yet passed Congress, will in one form or another. And General Motors has entered upon a larger production program than ever before. This is what "The Manchester Guardian" says about us:

"Up and down that vast country, business people, farmers, and ordinary consumers have been looking over their shoulders all most constantly for the last five years. They are always torturing themselves to decide whether they have borrowed too much, bought too much stock, or committed themselves too far to be safe in the event of a set-back. Yet business men have not shown any intention so far of reducing their expenditure for new plant and equipment even in 1954, and consumers have behaved with complete confidence. It would need more than the absence of a new stimulus to thrust that prosperity nation into chaos."

Brother, if you have not been looking over your shoulder, you should have. There is no telling what ghost of a depression you might have seen during 1954!

Canada and the United States have a surplus rather than a shortage of food.

because it will help you, too, along with all your readers.

Very truly yours,

To The Editor:

Love of Country, respect of our freedom, respect to our fellow man and most of all respect and honor to the "Founder and Father of our Country" George Washington, should to my humble mind be a "First in our teaching and tradition in all public schools and should not our public educators abide thereto? Would someone please enlighten me as to the authority and by whom orders issued that public schools be kept open Feb. 22 (Washington's Birthday)? Is it honoring the "Father of our Country" by having public schools open on a day set aside as a great National Holiday, a day set aside to honor and respect him, or is it teaching future generations patriotism by so-called higher education. (Just another school day? Is this the way to teach children to be patriotic?)

Physiological Reasons For Eating Too Much Important

Fat people have hed about as much encouragement lately as they could reasonably expect without actually getting thin.

There's that electronic sleep inducer and reducing machine invented by the Chicago engineer whose wife, Lillian, lost 14 pounds under its magic spell. This I would want to know more about before waxing too enthusiastic. It could well prove a delusion and a snare, like dumbbells, vibrators and rowing machines.

This device puts the overstuffed patient into a sort of hypnotic trance during which an accomplice plants the suggestion that he (the patient) quit eating between meals. Maybe that works with Lillian but I doubt that it would work with everyone.

If fat could be removed by hypnotic suggestion, all the hypnotists extant would long since have been worn down to nubbins.

I fear there is no such easy escape from obesity. On second thought, however, I guess it wouldn't hurt to inquire around and make sure.

Meantime I draw more hope from reports made at the recent fat man's clinic at Iowa State College. This unique gabfest brought together the nation's foremost blubber experts. And they tossed out some fairly fresh ideas on the subject.

There was considerable feeling among them that, for most hefties, dieting is a waste of time and willpower. Even when it takes, its heartening effects seldom last.

Some of their sweet talk was to the effect that we needn't take those weight charts on the drugstore scales too seriously. The charts are mostly based on the measurement of people who bought life insurance a long time ago and there is no assurance that those people would be representative of the present populace as a whole.

Maybe they were types that just worried a lot and therefore didn't have healthy appetites. Who knows?

Then, there's the matter of exercise. Fellow from Harvard said it can, too, help you reduce and doesn't necessarily make you eat more. He also put a new slant on those discouraging computations of how it takes 36 miles of walking or seven hours of woodchopping to take off a pound of fat.

You don't have to do all your walking or chopping at one sitting, he said. Other things being equal, walking a mile a day would take off 10 pounds in a year and chopping wood half an hour a day would shed 25 pounds. Keep you well supplied with kindling, to boot.

Best of all, though, was this Harvard man's assertion that it's no use to scold a person for being weak-willed if he eats too much. There are physiological reasons why a person eats too much, this expert thinks, and the thing to do is step up research to find the reasons.

Now, there's something that makes sense. We've had enough of this business of palming off the doctor's ignorance as the patient's weakness of character.

Try and Stop Me

—by Bennet Cerf

After planning a jail break for a year, a con up in Maine last fall had the bad luck to bring it off on the very day of the worst hurricane that had hit New England in sixteen years. He had—I cannot say enjoyed—exactly two hours of freedom, saw the roof blow off one house, a tree crash down on another, boats piled up against the rocks like kindling wood—then meekly walked back into the jail. "Life's gotten too tough outside," he explained.

Mr. Guggenheim turned a sour eye on the wreckage of his new convertible. "What happened this time?" he asked his wife wearily. "It wasn't my fault," she insisted. "That fool from the garage told me I'd better cool my engine—so I stripped the gears."

Horace Greeley, famous editor of the old Tribune, defined a good reporter as "a resourceful fellow who can handle another man as an astronomer handles his telescope: draw him out, see through him, and then put him up."

Robert S. Allen Reports

Democrats To Unveil Key Plans In Their Platform

Washington, February 24—The Democrats are about to unveil a draft of key planks of their platform in next year's presidential election.

They will do this indirectly in the form of the annual recommendations of the Joint Committee on the Economic Report, Chairman of this influential group is Senator Paul Douglas, Ill., one-time economics professor and a leading critic of Administration policies.

The committee's report will be strictly the product of the eight Democrats who now control it. However, they are privately claiming there is a good chance that several Republican Committee-men may approve some of the findings.

These possible GOP supporters are: Senator Ralph Flanders, Vt., who is credited with favoring a cut in personal income taxes; and Representative Henry Talle, Ia., who sides with the Democrats in advocating high-level price supports for farm products.

Highlights of the Committee's 1955 report, due by law on March 1, are as follows:

Direct low-interest federal loans to private business for the purpose of establishing new industries in so-called "depressed areas"; that is, where the level of unemployment exceeds 12 percent of the available labor supply.

Extend unemployment benefits from the present maximum of 26 weeks to 39 weeks.

Raise the minimum wage from 75 cents to $1, as against the 90 cents-per-hour recommended by President Eisenhower. Also extend this law to cover an additional 3,000,000 workers.

Speed up the spending of authorized federal aid to states and localities for the construction of fixed roads, schools and hospitals.

Restore the previous system of fixed 90-percent-of-parity farm price supports, instead of the present sliding scales.

Reduce individual income taxes, particularly for those earning less than $5,000. As one measure for this purpose, the report will endorse the $20 cut voted by the Democratic majority on the House Ways and Means Committee.

No Cheers—Basis for these proposals (and potential 1956 campaign planks) is a double-barreled Democratic contention:

(1) That unemployment is larger and more widespread than last year this time; (2) that agricultural income is continuing to decline because nothing is being done to halt this downward trend.

The committee report will say on this, "In 1954, farmers received an average of $2,500,000,000 a month from cash marketing, or about 4 percent lower than in 1953, and they can expect further decline in their income unless the present do-nothing policy of the Administration is reversed."

Similarly, Administration measures to increase employment will be criticized as inadequate and a case of "using light artillery where heavy artillery is required." The report will cite various tables and charts, such as the following:

The over-all national percentage of unemployment is now 5.3 as compared to 4.9 percent in January 1954.

The number of major areas of unemployment (16 percent or more of the working population) is now 44 as against 20 this time last year.

"Moderate unemployment" now prevails in 90 major areas (with working populations of 100,000 or more) in contrast to 79 in January 1954.

The number of small areas with unemployment of 6 percent or over has increased from 31 to 100.

The Committee report will declare, "A total of 1,762,000 persons exhausted their unemployment benefits last year, and a majority of them continue to be jobless. It is essential that immediate steps be taken to increase both number of weeks of benefit payments from a maximum of 26 to 39, and the amount of such compensation by at least 10 percent."

The report will also argue that a cut in personal taxes is necessary "to stimulate consumer buying and thus head off another recession and continued increase in unemployment."

Booming Along—The Rock Island Railroad will put a new-type train into service late this year. It will be a Talgo model; low-slung, light-weight and high speed... Congress is certain to approve the sale of the government's war built synthetic rubber plants. A plan for such authorization has been pending in Congress since January, with virtually no opposition. Unless this proposal is rejected by March 25, it goes into effect automatically... Both the production of electricity and oil are setting new records. Electric power capacity will increase an estimated 13,000, 000 kilowatts this year for a new peak of 115,000,000 kilowatts, as compared to less than half of that in 1948, and petroleum production in recent weeks has been running around 6,700,000 barrels a day. The previous record was 6,660,000 bbl. in November 1953.

The albatross ranks as the most powerful sea bird on the wing. Its air speed approximates 60 miles an hour. Its wingspread is sometimes 11 feet. The prize flyer of the southern ocean, the albatross can barely take off and land in still air. Thus it lives in the belt of the earth's fiercest winds.

World Day Of Prayer On Friday

—by H. G. Heller

A day of prayer begun by a small group of U. S. women 63 years ago will be marked by millions of Christians around the globe this week at services dedicated to world peace and understanding.

This Friday, the World Day of Prayer will be observed in more than 26,000 U. S. communities and in more than 136 other countries on almost every continent and island.

At services circling the earth for more than 24 hours, people of all ages and races will pray in more than a thousand languages and dialects for understanding among the nations of the world. And with their prayers will go offerings of money and material goods to help relieve human need and suffering wherever it exists. In the United States alone last year, World Day of Prayer offerings provided more than $437,563 for cooperative Christian ministries in health, education, and welfare at home and abroad.

New An International event, the World Day of Prayer was originated by Presbyterian women in Brooklyn as a day of prayer and giving for national missions. The idea was taken up by other church groups in the U. S. and overseas. In 1927 the first Friday in Lent became officially the World Day of Prayer. The movement has continued to grow. Just this year Bali, Czechoslovakia, Israel, Timor, Gambia, Gibraltar, Nauru, New Britain, Okinawa, Papua and Togoland were added to the long list of territories where services are held.

The chain of prayer will begin at daybreak in the Fiji and Tonga Island just west of the International Date Line. For there, the services will move westward with the sun until the last prayers have been said at nightfall on St. Lawrence Island, off the Alaskan coast, east of the date line.

A special feature of the observance this year is a globe-circling trip by an international team of Protestant women who will visit a dozen countries in the Middle and Far East, Africa, and Europe for conferences on the common concerns of women of the churches for world peace and unity among Christians.

Services in this country are held not only in churches, but in hospitals, schools, colleges and universities. Factory workers bow their heads in daylight services, and in many stores and offices employees meet in prayer before or during working hours.

In all the services, the central theme is a prayer for peace and justice, for understanding among peoples, for growth of the Church around the world, for unity among all Christians, and for a blessing upon offering that it may bless multitudes.

Kindergarten; More Space Are Basic Needs, Board Is Told

High School Overcrowded Groner Says

STROUDSBURG, Stroud and Delaware Water Gap school directors heard an analysis of current "needs" at a meeting last night.

Biggest items in the report, from Stroudsburg superintendent Earl Groner, were these:

One—Kindergarten facilities to serve all three areas.

Two—More space at the present high school building.

Three—Another elementary school building which would not be on the top priority list at present but would be a goal toward which the union school board, made up of all three districts, would work.

In this report Groner stressed the importance of setting up plans for kindergarten immediately. To do this, he said, a pre-school survey will be made within the next half-month.

One additional kindergarten teacher will be needed to handle the new facilities, he said.

The present Stroudsburg High School building is badly overcrowded, Groner said. "This building was built for about 500 students... (but) we now have more than 700," he said.

"We no longer can justify keeping our industrial arts courses and vocational agriculture in the cellar... where no large machinery can be brought in," he continued. The art room and music room in the present building are too small, Groner said. The library has so far outgrown its limited space, that it has become necessary to curtail students in the amount of time they may spend in the library, he said.

The present plan, Groner told the boards, is to "explore" the possibility of building additions to the present high school plant. One of these would be a wing of about 80 feet wide by 100 feet long.

In this first wing space could be provided for vocational agriculture, an art department and shop courses on the main floor while the second floor would offer space for the music department and more classrooms.

Also needed, Groner said, eventually, would be a new gymnasium at the high school. If this could be accomplished by building an addition to the present building, the interior of the high school could be remodeled to make way for a new library and possibly, a cafeteria, he said.

Most of the time at last night's meeting was given over to Groner's "report" on various committee reports.

Other items discussed, however, included the correct legal procedure to be used by the boards in requesting that the union district be recognized as an "independent third class district."

Board solicitor Ed Williams told the directors that the boards should petition the county school board for approval of the proposal. Before this petition is made out and forwarded, Williams said the individual boards should also go on record approving the petition and should then either sign it as a group or designate officers to sign it.

Once the school union goes into effect—on the first Monday in July this year—one of its first official acts will be the election of a superintendent, Williams said.

Acting chairman of the de facto "board," Herbert Crane, requested that Williams draw up a suitable motion for all three boards concerning their approval of the independent district petition.

Williams agreed to draw the motion up and to prepare the petition. The three boards agreed to act on the motion of approval at their March meetings.

Delaware Water Gap meets on Wednesday, March 2; Stroud on Monday, March 7 and Stroudsburg on Thursday, March 10.

Crane, as chairman of the "teachers committee," urged the board members to remember that the best time to hire good teachers "is now."

Speedy Action On Racing Referendum

HARRISBURG, Feb. 23 (P)—Speedy committee action on a bipartisan horse-racing referendum bill was promised today by Sen. G. Robert Watkins (R-Delaware).

Watkins, chairman of the Law and Order Committee, said he will call a meeting next Tuesday to act on the bill.

Should the measure win committee and final Legislature approval, Watkins will seek to have the question to the people ready for the May 17 primary election.

Watkins emphasized that the referendum bill does not call for legalized horse betting but merely puts this question up for a yes or no answer.

"Do you favor horse racing with legal wagering within the Commonwealth?"

A majority of "yes" votes would mean that legislation would have to be drawn up in 1957 to set up machinery for bringing in the tracks.

Looking ahead, Watkins said major tracks could be built in the Philadelphia and Pittsburgh areas with smaller tracks possibly in the vicinity of Harrisburg, Scranton and the northwestern part of the state.

Watkins estimated the Commonwealth could raise as much as 35 million dollars every two years through taxes on horse race betting. That revenue, he said, now is going to tracks in bordering states attended in great numbers by Pennsylvanians.

Montgomery Ward Seeks Court Aid

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 23 (P)—Montgomery Ward & Co. today urged the Illinois Supreme Court to overturn a lower court ruling and protect the firm from "financial pirates."

Board Chairman Sewell Avery, one of the nation's most prominent business leaders, is fighting a bid by Louis E. Wolfson, New York and Florida financier, to gain control of the big merchandising concern.

Wolfson won an important skirmish Feb. 2 when Circuit Judge Harry M. Fisher of Cook County ruled illegal the system under which three of Ward's nine directors are elected at each annual meeting of stockholders. Fisher said it conflicted with the state constitution.

South Half Of Turnpike To Open This Fall

HARRISBURG, Feb. 23 (P)—The Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission hopes to open the first section of the northwestern extension this fall.

A commission spokesman said that a date "some time this fall" has been fixed as the target for opening of the "southern half" of the 110-mile leg, first north-south section of the superhighway.

The northeastern extension, running from Plymouth Meeting, near Norristown, to Moosic, near Scranton, is scheduled to be completed in the fall of 1956.

The commission received unofficial low bids today for $4,400,745 and $4,638,413 for construction, paving and drainage of the T.J. Evans Tunnel in Lehigh and Carbon counties.

Two bids were submitted because the specifications call for two types of wall surfacing.

The 4300-foot tunnel, the only one on the northeast extension, runs from Washington Twp., Lehigh County, to East Penn Twp., Carbon County.

The commission representative said that it is hoped to open the lower 60 miles of the extension, from the Lehigh Valley Interchange at U.S. 22, near Allentown, to the intersection with the Delaware River extension near Norristown.

Two Homes Are Sold

TWO RESIDENCES were transferred recently, according to deeds recorded yesterday at the courthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Butz, East Stroudsburg, sold to Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hahn, that borough, an East Stroudsburg tract and dwelling on the west side of Elm St.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl E. Weiler, Franklin Square, N. Y., bought a Barrett Township property on the road from Cresco to Route 290. Grantors were Mr. and Mrs. Millard Price, Barrett Township.

Four Organizations Decide To Continue Battle To Halt Delaware Bridge's Removal

REPRESENTATIVES FROM THE Delaware River Interstate Citizens Association, Pennsylvania Motor Truckers Association of Monroe County and the Pomona Grange will attend a joint meeting of the Delaware Valley Protective Association and Bucks County officials to further discuss recent bridge disputes.

The session is scheduled for Friday at 8 p. m. at the high school building in New Hope.

The free Route 46 Delaware River Bridge between Knowlton and Upper Mount Bethel Townships and a similar span connecting Lambertville and New Hope will be the center of attention at the meeting.

The citizens association, led by President Fred Fuchs of Belvidere, is seeking the protective group's aid in saving the Route 46 bridge from planned destruction by the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission.

DRIC delegates are proposing an appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court for its reversal of a recent decision not to hear a citizens' appeal against a court order that the bridge commission be allowed to destroy the bridge.

The commission opened toll bridges in December 1953 at Portland-Columbia, two miles north of the free span, at Delaware Water Gap and Milford-Montague. It was announced at that time that the competing bridge would have to be destroyed. This decision was said to be due to an agreement with bondholders financing the new structures.

The meeting will also bring to light rumors in the New Hope area of commission plans to erect a toll bridge across the Delaware there to replace the present free one.

Other members of the citizens association planning to attend the discussion session are Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Van Atta, Mount Bethel, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heinsohn, Mt. Bethel, and Arthur Bartron, Portland. William Tarr, Stroudsburg RD 3, will represent the truckers association.

Delegates from a farmer's group in Bucks County and truck unit in Harrisburg are also expected to participate in the talks.

Stroudsburgs Entered In C. Of C. Development Test

THE PENNSYLVANIA State Chamber of Commerce announced in Harrisburg today that 154 communities, including Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, already have decided to compete in the $10,000 community development contest being sponsored this year by the State Chamber and five co-sponsoring organizations.

Communities in the Monroe area that have decided to compete include the Stroudsburgs. The deadline for entering the contest is March 31, and the State Chamber anticipates that many additional communities will enter before that date.

The $10,000 prize money has been expanded recently through announcements by two electric companies that they will match any awards won by communities in their service areas. The companies are West Penn Power Co. and Pennsylvania Power and Light Co.

Meanwhile, Pennsylvania's Governor and two U. S. Senators have strongly endorsed the contest, which is the first of its kind in Pennsylvania history.

Governor George M. Leader, in a letter to State Chamber President Joseph C. Feagley, of Lancaster, declared:

"I thoroughly endorse this effort at civic mobilization for the economic rehabilitation of those areas of our State now suffering the indignity and inequities of the threats of unemployment and business bankruptcies. The fate of Pennsylvania as the heart of America's industrial empire is a common responsibility of both the State and the local communities.

"Concerted action born of a mutual faith in our industrial and commercial future . . . will demonstrate to a company seeking a suitable environment for its productive operations the inestimable of settling in Pennsylvania.

"May I congratulate you for the initiative shown by the State Chamber of Commerce in launching this project which I trust shall enlist each and every community of our State in a crusade to make our Commonwealth greater."

Senator Edward Martin advised Mr. Feagley: "I think it is a splendid program. In addition to the other phases of the development program, I think it is particularly important to stress that part of the program dealing with new industries and industrial development. We should do everything possible at this time to bring new industries to Pennsylvania and create jobs for our citizens."

Senator James H. Duff, in a letter to Mr. Feagley, declared the contest "is a magnificent idea." He added: "In this critical period in this great day and age, nothing can be more vital than the stimulation of greater activity in the improvement of all phases of community life . . . This is certainly a worthwhile endeavor and deserves the support of everyone."

Associated with the State Chamber as co-sponsors are the Bell Telephone Co. of Pennsylvania, Pennsylvania Electric Association, Pennsylvania Farm Bureau Federation, Pennsylvania Gas Association, and Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association.

Communities will compete in three population classes, with a $1500 first prize and three other awards in each class. Winners will be selected on the basis of progress during 1955 on specific community projects listed in their official entry blanks. If several organizations in the same community desire to participate, they must coordinate their efforts and submit a single entry blank to the State Chamber.

Nuclear Development Plan For State Urged By Atomic Agency Committee Of NPIDC

ESTABLISHMENT OF A SPECIAL "nuclear development and application" bureau in the state Department of Commerce was urged today by the Northeast Pennsylvania Industrial Development Commission to place and keep Pennsylvania in the number one position in the field of nuclear energy.

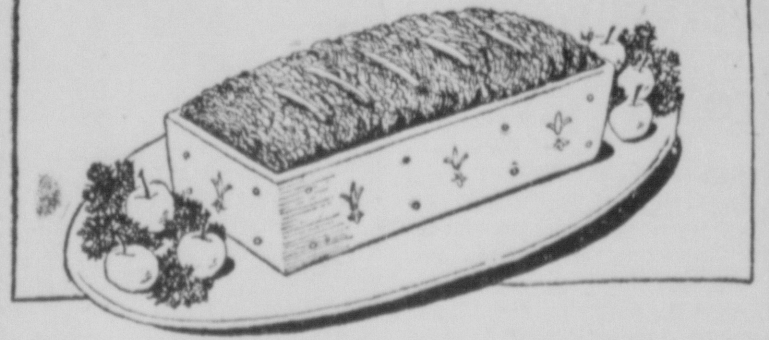

Bernard Blier, Chairman of the NPIDC's special atomic energy committee asked Commerce Secretary John P. Robin for consideration by him and his advisors of such a bureau when they plan to revamp the department. He suggested that the bureau be located "within the framework of your department's industrial and community development division."

Mr. Blier wrote "our NPIDC organization joins with state and local industrial associations in urging that our state government plan and carry out a program that will assure Pennsylvania leadership in the nuclear energy field, the strengthening of that leadership, and a vigorous state-wide informational program among our industry to guarantee extensive application of civilian application of nuclear energy wherever and whenever research deems it appropriate."

Citing the good or evil that might befall this state in a civilian nuclear energy development and application race, Mr. Blier pointed out that "the NPIDC feels that the new Department of Commerce fully appreciates the great possibilities which exist for substantial state industrial expansion under this revolutionary energy program, and are at the same time appraised that Pennsylvania could lose a great part of her industrial might if other states and regions move

Two State Restudy Of Incodel Plan

HARRISBURG — Pennsylvania and New Jersey legislators will meet at the office of Pennsylvania Senator Rowland Mahany here next Wednesday to further discuss the water supply and storage facilities in the Delaware River Valley.

Sen. Wayne Dumont, who made arrangements for the meeting, has announced this first of a series of sessions would likely have to do with interstate cooperation.

He said a later meeting may be arranged with legislators representing the Philadelphia area, whose support for the project is important.

The Wednesday meeting is aimed at settling the construction of a dam at Bushkill. The dam was authorized by the New Jersey Legislature in 1953.

It would furnish that state with 100,000,000 gallons of water a day. Pennsylvania has never approved this project. The dam cannot be built without agreement by both states bordering on the Delaware.

New Jersey has also given some consideration to abandoning the plan for Bushkill and constructing a reservoir at Round Valley in North Hunterdon County.

This would tap streams feeding into the Delaware and would not require permission from the Quaker state.

The New York Board of Water Supply has also been seeking means to obtain needed water from the Delaware.

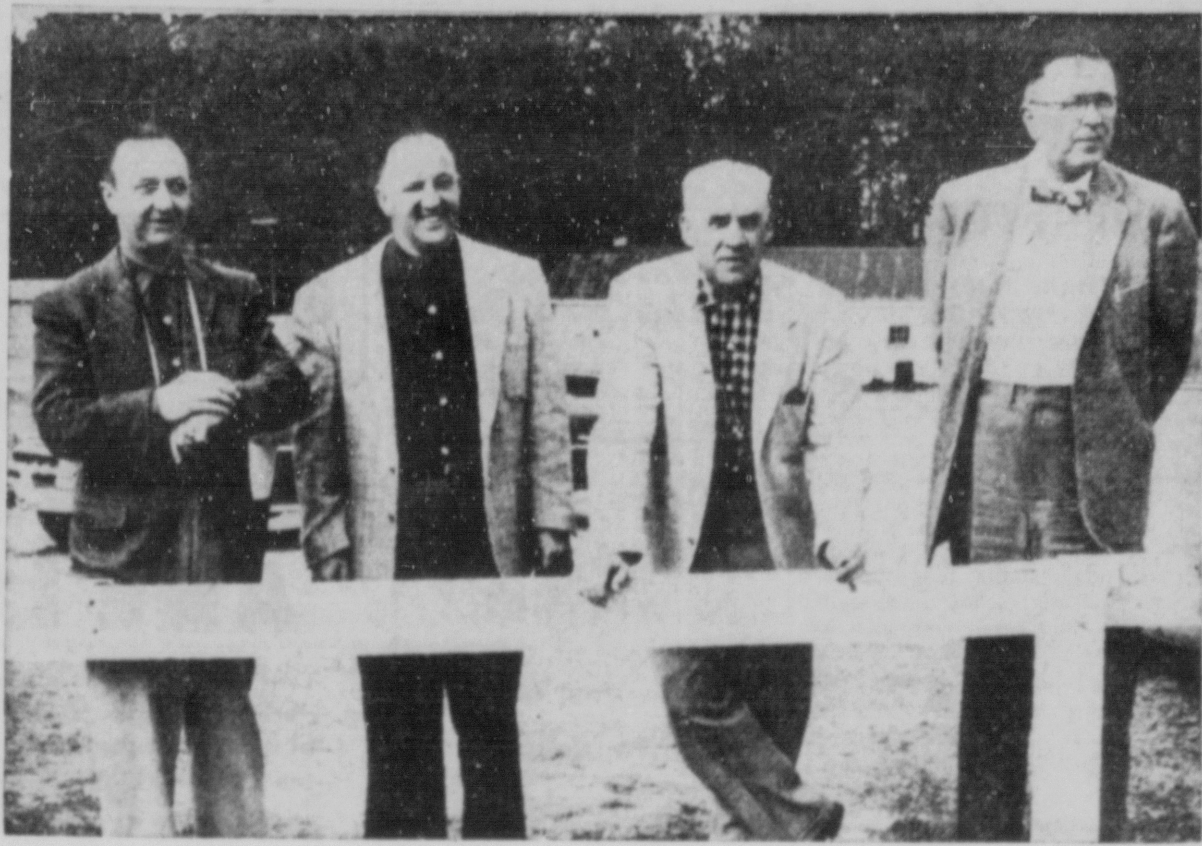

But the Citizens Budget Committee of New York City has maintained the city should draw from the Hudson River for its drinking water since it is more accessible.

Cut Taxes, Raise Wages In Allegheny

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 23 (P)—Allegheny County commissioners had some good news today for county employees and property owners. They cut the real estate tax one-half mill and increased wages.

County workers earning less than $6,000 annually get a five per cent boost. Those making more than $6,000 get a $25 monthly hike. The county employs 4,300.

Average saving under the tax reduction—from 10 to 9½ mills—will be $2 to $3. It represents the equivalent of 50 cents for every $1,000 of assessed valuation.

Commissioners adopted a 1955 budget of $37,504,191 — reflecting cuts totaling $1,700,000 in requests of department heads.

The commissioners ignored a request by 26 Pittsburgh district hospitals for financial assistance. The hospitals had asked $1,300,000 to help defray the cost of charity work.

Candidate For Scholarship Selected Here

SOME 35 GRADUATES of Penn State met in Stroudsburg Tuesday night to "sit in" on their alma mater's 100th birthday party.

For an hour the group listened to a leased-telephone-wire hook-up with the festivities being staged at the university at University Park, Pa. (the new post office address, instead of State College, Pa.)

They were among the 53 clubs which met for the same purpose.

Local club members heard of the work done in connection with the alumni memorial scholarship fund.

President Murrell Kiefer said the local club had selected one student from the three names submitted in Monroe County, and had forwarded the name to the university alumni headquarters.

The student will be in competition with 59 others submitted by other alumni clubs. Of the group, 15 students will be named to receive scholarships.

Arthur Ilt described the speaker's bureau which the alumni have set up. Ilt, who is bureau chairman in Monroe County, said any organizations or groups which would like to have a speaker at their meeting can arrange for one by contacting Ilt.

Ilt said he has a large list of subjects and speakers supplied by the bureau.

At election of officers J. Russell Eshback of Bushkill was named president. Other officers: Albert Heimbeck, Painton, vice president; Dr. Evan Reese, second vice president; William Davis, Milford, third vice president; Mrs. Miriam Lark Marks, secretary; Wilmer B. Frisbie, treasurer.

Philadelphia Flower Show March 14-19

THE 28th ANNUAL Philadelphia Flower Show will be held during the week of March 14-19 in the Commercial Museum, 34th St. below Spruce.

Four acres of floor space will be transformed into a man-made Paradise containing more than $1,000,000 worth of nature's perfect blooms, according to W. Allee Burpee, Jr., show president.

More than $75,000 will be awarded to exhibitors to encourage them to put on the most lavish display of flowers and plants in the entire Flower Show history.

Breath-taking features of the show will include outdoor swimming pools, formal gardens, woodland streams, spring gardens, outdoor lounges, rock gardens, back yard plantings, garden retreats, dooryard plantings, rare orchids, roses, carnations, palms, and foliage plants, ferns, plants and bulbs in flower, and cut flower arrangements.

Largest single feature of the show will be the spectacular "Aisle of Orchids." The center aisle of the huge hall will be flanked by thousands of orchids of all varieties, colors, and sizes. As visitors walk down this aisle, they will be overpowered by the largest display of orchids ever assembled in Philadelphia.

In another section, visitors will see scores of prize-winning flower arrangements and object lessons in plant arrangements.

According to show officials, the Philadelphia Flower Show will contain things to interest the backyard planter as well as the estate owner.

The Philadelphia Flower Show will open at 12 noon on Monday, March 14. Thereafter hours will be 9 A. M. to 10 P. M. Admission to the non-profit show will be $1.50 for adults and 75c for children, including tax.

Capital's Forty Plus Club Answer To Aged Unemployed

By RAYMOND WILCOVE

Special Press Correspondent

WASHINGTON — Twenty-two years ago, at the height of the depression, a Columbia university professor wrote a best seller, "Life Begins at 40."

The book cheered those who had passed the two-score mark and made them feel they weren't ready for the discard as some of their younger colleagues would have them believe.

However, as the years passed and Walter B. Pitkin's 175-page opus became ancient history, the lot of the man who reached the grand old age of 40 became more and more tinged with danger.

Industry didn't care to employ men of this advanced age. The man of 40 who lost his job was in difficulty. "Sorry," he was told, "but the position we have open requires a younger man."

Over the years, many efforts have been made to educate industry, to emphasize that men who have reached 40 are, in many respects, more valuable than younger men. They have the experience and stability which younger men usually lack.

How successful this campaign has been is problematical. But a new and novel approach to the problem has proven very successful in the nation's capital and may provide the answer to other communities who have to cope with it.

The question: How can we provide jobs for unemployed persons who have reached the age of 40? The answer: The Forty Plus club of Washington.

This is not to say that the Forty Plus club of Washington provides the ultimate answer to this pressing problem, but it does provide a partial solution which many may wish to try out in their own communities.

The Forty Plus club was organized a year ago. It is now observing its first anniversary. Russell Hogan, chairman of the club's membership committee, points with pride to the fact that the club has lost 15 members during the past two months.

This is probably the only club in the world which is happy to lose members. Why? Because a member lost is a job gained.

The Forty Plus club is a non-profit organization which endeavors to find positions for unemployed executives and professional men. To become a member, a person must be 40 years of age or older, have earned at least $3,500 a year, and must be unemployed.

Seventy-five members were taken into the club during the first year. Of this number, positions have been found for 42, not a bad record for an organization which is only one year old.

"We formed the club about the time of the big federal layoffs when the Republicans came into power in Washington," explained Hogan. "Many of us were government workers and many of us are Republicans."

The club has a distinguished advisory council. One of its members is William H. Press, executive vice president of the Washington board of trade, which is sponsoring the organization.

Press praised the group. He said: "We think they are doing a perfectly fine self-help service job for themselves, their friends and the community."

Edgerton Merrill, president of the Forty Plus club, told the advisory council in a recent report on its progress that the club is trying to sell itself as "a recognized source of experienced executives."

"We're doing fine," Merrill stated. "In the past two months we've lost 15 members."

Other communities faced with the same problem may well follow the example of the Washington board of trade in sponsoring an organization which provides "a recognized source of experienced executives" and whose aim is to lose members in the fastest possible time.

contact CD Headquarters by phone or in person or attend the next meeting.

Executive Director Paul Crown predicted another record auxiliary police class following the successful session. He announced over 100 were enrolled for the courses thus far. The classes will consist of eight sessions.

Various CD and police leaders were introduced during the program. This group included Crown, J. F. Vollers, East Stroudsburg director, Thomas Kistler, Zone 3 leader, Major D. Plummer, the county police co-ordinator; Mrs. Earl Miller, Headquarters Supervisor; and Police Chief James McConnell, Stroudsburg.

Hoover Says Sex Criminals Being Freed

NEW YORK, Feb. 23 (AP)—FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover says sex criminals constantly are being turned out of jail to prey again on the nation's children, and only united community action can solve this growing problem.

Hoover, writing in the current issue of American Magazine, says sex offenses reached an all-time high in 1953 and "the degenerate sex offender looms today as a menace to the safety and well-being of every boy and girl in America."

He urged more watchful care and training by parents, and a more "realistic" attitude toward sex offenders by law enforcement authorities.

"The prevalent practice," he said, "is to handle such an offender like any other criminal and to punish him according to the gravity of his crime, rather than to give him a psychiatric examination or medical attention."

"Nothing could be less realistic than this idea, embodied in many laws and implemented by many judges, that the sex offender should be treated like any other criminal."

"Police records, all over the country show that punishment alone almost never reforms such an offender. Hardly a day passes that a serious crime is not committed somewhere by a degenerate who, in the past, has been convicted over and over again for similar crimes."

Hoover said in the judgment of the FBI, the increase in sex crimes stems largely from "social and family upheavals which occurred during and immediately after World War II."

"The wartime spirit of abandon and 'anything goes' led to a decline of morals among people of all ages, and this is especially marked among today's young people. Many of these youths grew up in homes disrupted by the war. They receive little or no parental attention or supervision."

The all-star often flies at around 60 miles an hour.

Common Sense Now Prevails About Tobacco

NEW YORK, Feb. 23 (AP)—Paul M. Hahn, president of the American Tobacco Co., said today "common sense is beginning to prevail in the controversy over smoking and health."

Hahn, making public advance excerpts from the company's forthcoming annual report, said: "Favorable indications are accumulating that the anti-cigarette claims, widely publicized and reiterated during the year, are being responsibly and authoritatively challenged."

Supported by the opinions of reputable medical scientists, the public generally is coming to realize that no real case has been proved against tobacco, and that the present state of scientific knowledge on the subject of smoking and health does not justify dogmatic conclusions."

Kennedy's brother-in-law, sister and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Moyer and Mrs. James Badman, of Easton.

Fifth St. Pres. Mission Gives Surprise To Two

The Friendly Class of the Fifth Street Presbyterian Mission met at the Mission on Monday night, Feb. 21, to celebrate the birthday of one of its members, Eunice Reasor, and to tender a farewell to another member, Theodore Barry, who will enter the service of the U. S. Army on March 2.

The class president, Mildred Kintner, had arranged a very appropriate program with Valentine's Day as the theme. She dispensed with the business portion of the meeting and led the class in an informal period of entertainment.

Hymns sung by the group were "Since Jesus Came Into My Heart," and "If Your Heart Keeps Right." Miss Kintner led the group in prayer and also read the scripture which was taken from the 13th chapter of the book of first Corinthians, which is often referred to as the "love chapter" in the Bible.

The mission orchestra was heard in two selections. There were duets by Johnny and Ruthie Lake and by William Barry and Eunice Reasor, and a vocal number by the girls in the intermediate class with Joan Lake as accompanist. Gladys Marsh presented a humorous monologue entitled "Painting The Car."

The birthday celebrant, Eunice Reasor, was unaware that the meeting was in her honor and was surprised when presented with a gift from the group. Teddy Barry was also surprised with a farewell gift and had come to the meeting under the impression it was solely a birthday party for Miss Reasor.

After the presentation of the gifts, the class sang several favorite hymns and participated in a Valentine grab bag. Refreshments were served from a table beautifully decorated in the Valentine motif.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Neipert and children, Dorothy and Susie; Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Lake and children, Joan, Johnny and Ruthie; Mr. and Mrs. William Barry; Mrs. Lucy Barry; Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson; Mrs. Gladys Marsh; Mrs. Pearl Beyner; Mrs. Edna Gordon and son, Larry; the Misses Mildred Kintner, Eunice Reasor, Barbara Garis, Abbie Jane Frisbie, Sandra Mader, and Mary Ann Jennings, James Bradshaw and Theodore Barry.

Anchor Books, an affiliate of Doubleday & Company, was recently awarded the Carey-Thomas Award for publishing achievement, and, close on the heels of this honor, comes the announcement that the first original works to appear in this series for the serious reader, will be published today.

"Four Stages of Renaissance Style: Transformations in Art and Literature" by Wylie Sypher, will be the first illustrated Anchor Book and will launch the new series on the history of art. Other Anchor originals will include "The Modern Theatre, Volumes I and II" edited by Eric Bentley; "The Growth and Structure of the English Language" by Otto Jespersen, and "The House by the Medlar Tree," by Giovanni Verga. Paper bound, these books represent the finest in information on serious subjects at a price all readers can afford. Their quality is best indicated by Doubleday's proud statement that there are now close to a million and a half copies of Anchor books in print.

When March arrives watch for the new book by Anne Morrow Lindbergh to be published by Pantheon. Here is an author we are happy to have back on our shelves. Remember her "Listen, the Wind" and "North to the Orient", the beautifully written accounts of her adventures as wings with husband Charles? Anne Lindbergh is a poet at heart, and a philosopher of deep understanding. There is sense, gentle humor, and loveliness in her books. Florence Predmore tells us she's stocking this new one, both for sale and reading—So ask about it—you'll find it a refreshing change from much of the modern drivel we're fed periodically.

Everyone is asking about Margaret LaBar, the recent past president of our Wyckoff Employees Association, now resting comfortably at the General Hospital after a session on the operating table. Since you can't keep a good gal down, we're sure Maggie will be breezing around soon again, but usual blithe and gassy self.

I suppose Madame Former President is receiving so many get well cards she could use one of the new Deskmaster Combinations on display in our gift department. Not only are they smart in appearance, with their sharply pointed chrome blade, but they have a mother of pearl handle which conceals a pocket knife. I'm just wondering why one would need a pocket knife while seated at a desk opening letters? It's not quite clear to me—but in any case if ever one did, these gadgets at $1 would be a perfect answer.

Chrome is also used in two very efficient hammers also on sale in the gift department. One is solid and heavy. The other slim tool is actually a tool kit, for the handle comes apart to reveal tiny screw drivers concealed inside. It's like opening a big box to find a nest of tinier ones — darned fascinating in any case.

AAU Track Championship On Saturday

NEWARK, Del., Feb. 23—Prospects for a successful AAU championship indoor track meet at the University of Delaware at 1:30 p. m. on Saturday are good, stated William Jameson, chairman of the men's track and field division of the South Atlantic AAU Association, today. Top athletes throughout the South Atlantic area have entered the five afternoon events scheduled for Carpenter Field House.

Highlighting the list of track and field celebrities is Carl Cager, Baltimore Olympic Club member who was clocked last year at :09.5 in the 100-yard dash, the third best time in the world last year. Ranking ninth in the world in the 100-yard dash, Cager placed in both the 100-yard dash and the 220-yard dash in the National AAU championships last year.

A Penn Relays winner will also be on hand for the University of Delaware meet. Joshua Culbreath, Morgan State star who copped the 400-meter hurdles in the Penn Relays, will compete against other hurdlers at Newark. The South Atlantic indoor high hurdles champion, Culbreath also holds the record for the national 440-yard hurdles.

Two Baltimore athletes, George Dennis and Bud Frasier, will be bidding for honors in the high jump event at Delaware. Dennis of Morgan State is the South Atlantic Association high jump champion and record holder, while Frasier, a member of the Baltimore Olympic Club, is a former Big Seven high jump champion.

George Butler, Baltimore Olympic Club figure and South Atlantic record holder, heads the list of pole vaulters registered for the University of Delaware meet.

The shotput event will match Lou McComas of the Baltimore Olympic Club against Steve Butcher of the University of Delaware. McComas has established himself as the man to beat by winning the championship in the South Atlantic Association. Butcher, captain of the Delaware track team, won the shotput event in the Baltimore Relays last year and holds the University of Delaware record for the shot.

The high jump and pole vault eliminations are the first events on the afternoon card, beginning at 1:30 p. m.

Tax Cut Hits Jackpot

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 23 (AP)—Form Players took a look at a 3-year-old colt named Tax Cut in the fourth race at Hialeah Park today and figured he didn't have a chance in the six furlong sprint.

True, Tax Cut had won four of his last six starts, in claiming and allowance races, but he finished fourth in his last start and was picking up six pounds off that effort, besides going with better colts and geldings his same age.

What the experts overlooked that "Tax Cut" was very much in the limelight today, with President Eisenhower opposing a proposed income tax reduction.

Tax Cut won the race, paying $37.20, $13.50 and $7.70 across the board. Islander, the favorite, finished ninth.

Constance Upsets Gavilan's Ring Plan

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 23 (AP)—Hector Constance, a tough young sharpshooter from Trinidad, knocked "Kid" Gavilan off the comeback trail tonight with a unanimous decision over the ex-welterweight champion.

The 24-year-old Constance, fighting a smart, aggressive battle all the way, scored heavily in the infighting and punished Gavilan with hard right uppercuts and a piston-like left when ever the Cuban Kid launched one of his famous flurries.

Gavilan's defeat by the ninth-ranked contender may have ruined the once-great champion's hopes of beating his way back to the title he lost October 20 to Johnny Saxton in Philadelphia.

It was a close fight from start to finish. Referee Cy Gottfried gave Constance, the 9-5 underdog, a margin of 96-95.

Judge Gus Jacobson voted it 97-95 and Judge Morris Feingold 99-97. The Associated Press gave Constance a 97-96 edge.

Gavilan weighed 154½ pounds, five and one-quarter more than Constance, and tried to make the advantage pay off by throwing his weight into the lithe young Negro from the West Indies, but Constance held him off most of the time with his lightning punches.

In the 10th Constance, who started pro fighting in 1951—about the time Gavilan was lifting the welterweight crown from Johnny Bratton in New York—stood toe-to-toe with the Cuban in one of his dangerous last-round flurries and held his own with the former champ.

Gavilan had little to say in his dressing room after the fight, but later he visited the press row at ringside and declared that the decision would be appealed to the Miami Beach Boxing Commission and the National Boxing Association.

"This fella didn't do nothing better than me," Gavilan asserted.

"I had to force him to fight and I win every round."

"It was funny decision, maybe as funny as the one they gave Johnny Saxton."

Gavilan's manager, Yamil Chade, a Cuban banker, called the decision "very bad" and said he would press the appeal as quickly as possible.

Constance shrugged when he was asked of Gavilan's complaint.

"The people on television all saw me win the fight," he grinned. "I fought the best fight of my career, but Gavilan wasn't as tough as I expected him to be."

The lone track which has not yet been granted dates is Jackson Raceway, Jackson, Mich. Those dates are expected to be assigned later.

Every track that raced last year will go in 1955 along with one newcomer, Audubon Park at Henderson, Ky., near Evansville, Ind.

Chapman Quits Baseball

OAKLAND, Calif., Feb. 23 (AP)—Veteran outfielder Sam Chapman announced his retirement from baseball today.

Chapman, 37, played with two major league teams and the Pacific Coast League Oakland Oaks during his 17-year career.

He went directly to the Philadelphia Athletics from the University of California campus in June, 1938. He shifted to Cleveland just before coming to Oakland in 1952.

Former Allentown Star Owns Six Records At Gettysburg

GETTYSBURG, Feb. 23 . . . Bill Snyder, Gettysburg College's basketball scoring ace, is looking for new records to break. The 6-2 senior co-captain from Allentown has established six Gettysburg scoring marks this season, and each point he chalks up during the remaining games on the Bullets' schedule will make his records tougher to beat.

Through 18 games, Snyder, who co-captained Allentown High School to a state championship before entering Gettysburg, has scored a total of 406 points and has a 22.5 per game average. Both are one-season marks for Gettysburg. He has made 142 field goals and 122 foul shots so far this season, both records. His 38 points against powerful St. Francis of Loretto on Feb. 14 wiped out the old mark of 37 scored in 1951 by Bob Pizolato, another Allentown boy. In slightly less than three seasons of varsity play, Snyder has scored 1,026 points, making him the first player in the school's history to score 1,000 or more points in a career.

He hit the 1,000 mark Feb. 16 with 31 in Gettysburg's 74-72 over Navy, the fifth time this year he has scored 30 or more points in one contest. Also outstanding in other aspects of play, Snyder is the team's second best rebounder with 228 and runnerup in assists with 28.

His game-by-game scoring record this season is as follows: Against Elizabethtown, 12; Lebanon Valley, 21; Temple, 14; Johns Hopkins, 26; Penn State, 27; Western Maryland, 10; Hofstra, 14; Wagner, 17; Bucknell, 35; Lehigh, 23; Lebanon Valley, 30; Quantic Marines, 18; Muhlenberg, 16; Franklin and Marshall, 30; Lehigh, 18; St. Francis, 38; Navy, 31; Bucknell, 26.

Father Brown was the big gun for Hawley with 28 counters, on 12 field goals and four foul shots. Newfoundland ran up an advantage of 36-30 from the floor and hit on 23 of 39 foul shots. Hawley creased the cords with 17 of 25 free throws.

The contest was played on the Greene - Dreher - Sterling High School court.

ESSTC Girls Decision Misericordia

DALLAS, Pa. East Stroudsburg State Teachers College girls snap their basketball losing streak at four straight last night and accounted for their third victory of the current campaign with a thrilling 48-46 victory over Colgate Misericordia.

The contest was played here on the losing squad's home court.

It was the second time this season that the Warriorettes have won over Misericordia, but the visiting contingent had to fight off a strong finish by the home squad to gain the verdict.

ESSTC did most of its damage in the third quarter after leading 12-11 at the end of the first period and trailing by one point at halftime, 21-20. Misericordia had the better of the going in the second round, 10-8.

The visiting Warriorettes took command of the game in the third round, with a 14-7 advantage, and then almost saw the verdict slip from their hands in the last quarter as the home cagers dominated the scoring, 18-14. ESSTC maintained enough of its advantage to be declared the winner.

ESSTC held at 21-17 advantage in field goals and converted six of 15 free throws. Misericordia made good on 12 of 21 charity tosses.

Carol Sue Underwood paced the winning ESSTC attack, on nine goals from the floor and two from the foul line. Lillian Maluo's 21 counters, on eight field goals and five free throws, topped the losing offense.

ESSTC will go in search of its fourth victory of the season on Saturday against Cheyney Teachers, on the Cheyney court.

RILEY

Sports Editor

REPORTS coming out of Hellertown yesterday indicate that Bill Pensyl, East Stroudsburg High center, has completely recovered from a sprain-fracture of the left ankle. Not that Bill kicked the ball into the net, but rather that the injured limb didn't hamper his shooting one bit as he rolled up 37 points for a new school scoring record. Pensyl registered the new mark on 15 goals from the field and seven from the foul line.

It's fitting that Pensyl should be the one to break a record held jointly by the highly regarded Ray Steele and Bob "Red" Kupfzewski, as the Portland resident had knocked on the door of success earlier in the campaign when he tallied 20 points in the first half, only to fall off with 11 in the second half. The early showing was against Parkland in the first Lehigh-Northampton League game of the current campaign. Steele, now laboring with the Kansas City farmhands in Florida, was in the stands cheering for Pensyl against Parkland.

Kupfzewski, on the sidelines with an eye injury at the present time, wasn't on hand to witness his teammate's record performance against Hellertown. Due to foggy weather and bad driving conditions Kupfzewski decided to play the role of spectator at the Stroudsburg - Lehighton contest. Except for a heart-breaking defeat at the hands of Coplay, the Cavaliers would be right in the middle of the second half championship picture at the present time.

East Stroudsburg was without the services of both Pensyl and Howard Smith when they dropped a last minute decision to Coplay, the club that is now leading the Lehigh-Northampton park. It's been many a moon since an East Stroudsburg quintet has won four games in half a season and it gave the charges of Coach Dick Forster a record of 10 wins and 12 setbacks. If the Cavaliers win their last two outings they will finish with a 12-12 slate.

Stroudsburg set a post-World War Two mark on Tuesday when the Mountaineers outlasted Lehighton. It was the fourth win of the current second half campaign and stamped them as the first club to turn this trick since shooting stopped in Europe and the South Pacific. There were no individual records set, but Francis "Sonny" Deber played his best game of the season and scored the most points he has ever tallied in a single contest when the Stroudsburg guard registered 21.

Ben Jones, Stroudsburg graduate and Lehighton coach, wanted badly to win Tuesday night's game, but he was forced to settle for a brilliant performance by Bob "Cookie" Arner, the only senior on the entire Lehighton squad. Arner tallied 21 points, on 11 field goals and 12 foul shots, for the highest point total registered on the W. Main St. court since the famous Bill Mikay came up with 41 for Palmerton in 1948.

Arner's performance bettered the former "runnerup" mark held jointly by Stroudsburg's Byron "Chick" Miller and Lehighton's Denny Roth, each featuring 23 tallies. Roth is now on the first team at Muhlenberg. All things point to a real showdown battle next Tuesday, when Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg clash on the W. Main St. court. Each team holds one decision over the opposition this season and each will pull out all stops to grab the "rubber" game verdict.

East Stroudsburg State Teachers College didn't look as sharp against Lock Haven as it has in recent basketball outings, but the high flying Warriors were good enough to doya the Bald Eagles, 50-21, for their sixth straight win and eighth favorable verdict in the last 10 games. ESSC has won eight and lost five games this season. Coach Jerry Palaia appears to have the magic touch with substitutes and right now has eight men who do the job without loss of power.

Cha-ley German, although playing with an injured instep on his left foot, tallied 29 points to bring his total to 104 points in the last three games. The former Whitehall flash came up with 35 against Panzer, 37 against Trenton and 29 in Tuesday's battle with Lock Haven. Palaia gave the Warriors a day off from the practice grind yesterday and may also pass up today's scheduled drill session. The Warriors are slated to stack up against a Cheney club that will be very troublesome on its home court on Saturday night.

East Stroudsburg Cagers Entertain Bangor Tonight

Cavaliers Search For Fifth Victory

EAST Stroudsburg and Bangor High Schools close up the books on the 1954-1955 Lehigh-Northampton League basketball season tonight, on the N. Courtland St. Court. The Cavaliers will be seeking their fourth straight and fifth win of the second half campaign.

The Cavaliers, driving hard to the finish line, will also be shooting for their 11th victory in 23 outings and will be trying for their second favorable decision of the current campaign over Bangor. Eastburg defeated the Slaters in the first clash, 77-60, on the Bangor hardwood.

East Stroudsburg is currently in the midst of its longest winning streak of the current campaign, having defeated Pen Argyl, Nazareth and Hellertown in order since last tasting defeat.

A victory tonight would enable the Cavaliers to register their best second half showing in the Lehigh-Northampton League in recent years, as it will enable the N. Courtland St. Quintet to finish the second half race with five victories and three setbacks.

Coach Dick Forster's East Stroudsburg lineup will be much the same as it has been during the recent winning streak. It will feature Barry Lambert and Howard Smith at the forward positions and Bill Pensyl at center. The starting guards will be Bill Sommers and Dick Gray.

Pensyl set a school scoring record the last time out when he registered 37 points against Hellertown. It will be the last home appearance for Pensyl, Smith, Lambert and Sommers, all seniors. Bob "Red" Kupfzewski, another senior, is still on the sidelines with an eye injury.

Jim Kinler and Danny Marvin are also expected to see plenty of action for the Cavaliers tonight.

Don Keat, on the verge of setting a new seasonal scoring mark at Bangor High, will lead the Slaters into battle from his center position tonight. Keat tallied 19 points against Coplay on Tuesday to tie the season scoring mark now held by Jim Rowland at 307 points. Keat has two more games in which to better this mark.

The remainder of Coach John Heard's Bangor lineup will feature Art "Bucky" Parsons and Wayne Landry, a senior, at forward posts and Duane Miller and Wayne Pysher at the guard spots.

Bangor will take a second half record of one win and six defeats into tonight's contest.

Junior varsity action is on the agenda for 6:45 p.m. and the main event at approximately 8 p.m.

Santee Changes Track Plans

NEW YORK, Feb. 23 (AP) — Wes Santee, America's fastest miller, ran out of time and won't compete in the Pan-American games in Mexico City next month.

The lean cowboy was withdrawn today from the track and field squad because the University of Kansas wouldn't permit him to leave school for the required two weeks, said Jim Kelly, chairman of the U.S. Track and Field Committee.

He was replaced in the 1,500 event by Bob McMillen of the armed forces who will run in the metric mile with Fred Dwyer, another fleet serviceman.

U. S. Tennis Brass Believe Connolly's Retirement Will Be Short

By Will Grimley
FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Feb. 23 (AP) — Uncle Sam's tennis brass refused to take too much stock today in Laurence Connolly's retirement announcement — they think she'll be back.

"I believe this is just temporary," said Lawrence Baker, a leading figure in the U. S. Lawn Tennis Association. "She'll take a year off from her marriage and then we'll be seeing her on the courts again. I'm sure."

"The champions always come back," commented USLTA Sec-

Blackwell May Take Troubles With Yanks To Commissioner

TAMPA, Fla., Feb. 23 (AP) — Ewell Blackwell said today he will appeal to Commissioner Ford Frick if the New York Yankees don't give him a contract or his unconditional release.

Asserting he still is the property of the Yankees, the former National League pitcher great, harassed by recurring arm trouble, said:

"The Yankees refused to give me a contract last year.

"If they don't want me to play, why don't they release me from my contract. I think I can pitch again. If not with the Yanks, with some other club. I know I can pitch in the Pacific Coast League. I'd love to pitch there."

The tall, lanky righthander, acquired by the Yanks from the Cincinnati Reds in August, 1952 for a bundle of cash and four players, developed a sore arm the following year and retired from baseball last spring after the arm failed to respond. In 1947, at the height of his career he won 22 games, 16 of them in a row.

Currently a liquor salesman in Tampa, Blackie said he was eager to come out of retirement.

Indiana Names New Athletic Director To Rebuild Program

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Feb. 23 (AP) — Indiana University, whose football and basketball teams are at low ebb, today named a new athletic director, Frank E. Allen, 63-year-old superintendent of schools at South Bend, Ind.

Greene-Dreher Lists Special Cage Program

NEWFOUNDLAND — Music, drills and baton twirling will vie with basketball for spectators' attention here tomorrow as Greene-Dreher-Sterling presents its annual Booster Night attraction.

The local school's 60-piece band will play and the organization's baton manipulators will strut their stuff in a between games show. Sponsored by the school's athletic association, the program is under the direction of John Strupewski, music instructor at the school.

Both junior varsity and varsity games will be played with the former getting underway at 7:30 p.m.

When the musical festivities are over, fans will have a look at a contest that will have a definite bearing on the outcome of the Southern Division race of the Wayne County Basketball Conference. A Hawley win against the Stags and another over Waymart coupled with a Moscow loss could end the race in a deadlock.

On the other hand, the charges of Coach Henry "Hank" Arneberg are primed to avenge an earlier loss to the Duckhorns and force them to make their bid for the WCC crown on their Northern half record alone. Hawley is 5-3; Greene-Dreher-Sterling 4-5 in the Southern.

The probable starting lineup for the Stags will have Henry "Hank" Olsonmer and Johnny Manhart at forwards, Art Frey at center, Dave Heberling and Walter "Johnny" Hinds at the guards, Tom Klepadlo, George Uhl and Carl Rose are most likely to be called upon for reserve duty.

Middle Smithfield Wins

ECHO LAKE Middle Smithfield, coached by Wayne Wallingford, broke into the win column here yesterday with a 28-20 nod over Middle Smithfield. The contest was played on the winning team's home floor.

Wilson Refuses Salary Terms

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 23 (AP) — The Milwaukee Braves have offered Jim (Go Hit) Wilson a salary increase but the 22-year-old hurler has refused to sign.

John Quinn, Braves general manager, told about the offered raise today but didn't say how much it was.

Wilson had an 8-2 slate for the Braves in 1954. He turned in a no-hit, no-run game on June 12 against Robin Roberts and the Philadelphia Phillies but ran into trouble after that and failed to finish 10 of his last 11 starts.

Wilson was a 2-1 star for the Braves in 1954. He turned in a no-hit, no-run game on June 12 against Robin Roberts and the Philadelphia Phillies but ran into trouble after that and failed to finish 10 of his last 11 starts.

Softball Loop Lists Ground Rules Board

MONROE COUNTY Softball League action will get underway approximately on May 1, it was decided at a meeting of the circuit last night at The Daily Record offices.

The league will begin its activity as near May 1 as possible, Bruce Possinger, circuit president, announced following the gathering. Five teams were represented by 12 men at last night's meeting, during which time a committee was named to draw up ground rules for the various fields to be used during the coming campaign.

Members of the Ground Rules Committee are Possinger, Carl Strunk, Ernie Carretta and Ray O'Melko.

Unhappy and the possibility of forming a grievance committee also came up for discussion among the group.

The league set April 5 as the deadline for entrance fees and announced that only two students from East Stroudsburg State Teachers College could play on each team and that none of the college players could be pitchers.

Possinger and Bill Stone, secretary-treasurer, announced following the meeting that the circuit would like to have either one or three more entries.

The entry deadline has been set as Wednesday, March 16, when the league will meet at The Daily Record offices once again. The meeting will take place at 7:30 p.m.

Anyone wishing to enter a team in the circuit is asked to contact Possinger or Stone.

Jack's Market was represented by O'Melko last night, when Strunk was on hand for Al Bessecker's Diner; Bill Notestine, Empire Box; Stone, Patterson-Kelley, and Bill Weber is the representative for Kipper's Laundry.

Irish Add To Grid Staff

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Feb. 23 (AP) — Athletic Director Ed (Moose) Krause today announced the signing of Bill Walsh of the Pittsburgh Steelers as Notre Dame football line coach.

Walsh, a center, played every game for four years with the Irish from 1945 through 1948, when they won two national titles and had three undefeated seasons. He has been with the Steelers of the National Pro Football League since graduation.

In his new assignment Walsh will join two former teammates, Head Coach Terry Brennan and assistant Bill Fischer, who played the same four years at Notre Dame.

Former Grid Star To Coach

SALT LAKE CITY, Feb. 23 (AP) — Everett Faunce, 28, former Minnesota backfield star, today was chosen head football coach at Utah State Agricultural College.

Faunce succeeds John Rosing who recently moved to Denver University.

Young players threatening to step into Little Mo's shoes.

"Of course, we will have Doris Hartour present champion, and Louise Brough and others who have been around for quite a while, but we also have a fine crop of youngsters coming up."

"I would rate three of these newcomers — Darlene Hard, Barbara Breit and Dennis Bradshaw — as comparable with Maureen at the same stage. Miss Breit, just 16, has another year in the juniors, the other two are 17."

Well Marked, Queen Margie Pace Fields

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 23 (AP) — Thirty-six sleek young 2-year-olds competed in the two divisions of the $15,000 added Hialeah Juvenile Stakes today before 19,632 fans at Hialeah Park and the inside post position produced the winner in each race.

Well Marked, a "field" horse in the betting, won the first division under jockey Ralph Root and Queen Margie won the second division with Jimmy Nichols riding.

Well Marked, owned by Mrs. Ella K. Bryson of Kingsville, Md., took the lead from Mrs. Charles Silvers' Bob-O-Boy midway the three furlong dash and won by half a length. Bob-O-Boy also was a "field horse."

Duntreath Farm's Roman Whirl was third and Mrs. Joseph Tomlinson's Guard Rail was fourth in the field of 17 starters.

Well Marked was making his second start and ran the three furlongs in :33 1-5.

Well Marked paid $11.20.

Queen Margie covered the distance in :32 4-5, only a fifth of a second slower than the track record set by Make Sving on this same date six years ago, in this same feature.

Favorite in the field of 19 was E. Gay Drake's Swoon's Son at 2 to 1, who finished second, a length back of Queen Margie and a length in front of Mrs. Bryson's But First, the third horse.

Queen Margie, owned by T. F. Devereux of Lexington, Ky., paid $18.60.

Reds Lodge Sports Protest

LONDON, Feb. 23 (AP) — Red China not only wants to get Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek off Nationalist Formosa but also out of the Federation Internationale de National Amateur sports body.

Peiping Radio tonight said Communist China had protested to the sports group against a decision to admit Nationalist athletic organizations.

The protest said admission of Nationalist China not only will undermine the honor and dignity of FINA, "but it is at the same time detrimental to friendly cooperation among peoples of all countries."

Bobsled Group Stands Firm

LAKE PLACID, N. Y., Feb. 23 (AP) — The U. S. Olympic Bobsled Committee stood firm tonight on its choice of a team that includes Stanley Benham, despite a trans-Atlantic threat that the whole U. S. team would be barred from the 1956 games in Italy.

The president of the International Bobsled Federation (IBF), Count Renaud de la Fregoliere, declared in Paris today that the team would not be allowed to compete if Benham were a member.

Last Jan. 29, the federation banned the 40-year-old former world champion from all international bobsled competition for three years. Benham, of Lake Placid, had walked out on the four-man world championship last year at Cortina D'Ampezzo and the federation called his action "unsportsmanlike." He said he had been unable to transport his sled to Italy and could find no suitable replacement there.

Law Makers Rap NCAA

ST. PAUL, Minn., Feb. 23 (AP) — The Minnesota House of Representatives today passed a resolution asking the University of Minnesota to ignore NCAA policies and permit telecasting of athletic events.

The resolution has no binding effect on the school, Rep. D. D. Wozniak, chief sponsor, said he hoped "this type of legislative pressure, which is the only thing the NCAA understands, will influence it to come up with a system whereby the games can be televised."

The measure carried by voice vote, with a few scattered dissents and after little debate. It was aimed primarily at NCAA restrictions on football telecasts.

The measure, a House resolution, does not require Senate action.

Cards Unable To Find Hurler

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 23 (AP) — Pitcher Joe Presko agreed to terms today with the St. Louis Cardinals, leaving only catcher Del Rice and a "missing" rookie pitcher still unsigned.

The Cardinals reported they have been unable to locate Tony Jacobs, a relief pitcher who won 12 and lost only 1 with Rochester of the International League last year.

Eastburg Junior High Ends Season By Downing Pocono

EAST STROUDSBURG Junior High School closed its basketball campaign yesterday by avenging an early season setback with a 20-26 victory over Pocono Junior High. The contest was held on the winning team's home floor.

Damascus, Lake Ariel Gain Nods

HONESDALE — Damascus overwhelmed Preston, 91-59, and Lake Ariel trounced Honesdale, 57-46, in Wayne County Basketball conference games Tuesday night. Both contests were rescheduled games of earlier postponements.

Waymart and Hawley, slated to meet at Hawley, were unable to play because of a virus outbreak in the Hawley school. Monday has been set as a tentative date for play of this crucial Northern division game.

Lake Ariel was never in trouble against the Hornets due to powerful play underneath the basket by "Howie" Byrd, who netted 39 points. Bob Seibert led the Honesdale scoring with 11 points.

Ken Bjora was top producer for Damascus with 25 points but he had plenty of help from Bob Fuchs and Fred Schnalenberg, each of whom scored 20 markers. Dick Murphy was high for the losers with 24.

Damascus now has a conference record of eight wins and four defeats, its best in history. Friday's schedule: Preston at Pleasant Mount; Waymart at Honesdale; Hawley at Greene-Dreher-Sterling and Moscow at Lake Ariel.

Penn State Triumphs

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Feb. 23 (AP) — Penn State overpowered a spirited Rutgers five tonight, defeating the Scarlet 83-64, for its 16th win of the season as senior center Jesse Arnette rolled up 33 points and moved into the coveted 2,000 point list.

Groat, one-time basketball star at Duke University, was a standout in his rookie year with the Pirates in 1952, batting .284 and fielding in stellar fashion.

The 24-year-old Swissvale, Pa. resident came to terms after a brief conference with Branch Rickey Jr., a vice president of the club. Salary was not disclosed.

Only two Pirates now are unsigned — outfielder Frank Thomas and pitcher Vernon Law.

Good Baseball Performers Plentiful

By Ben Olson
NEW YORK, Feb. 23 (AP)—It wasn't too long ago that we looked with awe on anyone who took us to see Christy Mathewson, Ty Cobb or Honus Wagner perform in the "good of days."

Well, in the course of conversation at dinner the other evening, we suddenly realized that it's been more than two decades—1934, to be exact—since we saw our first major league baseball game.

We recalled that the Chicago White Sox and the New York Yankees were the opposing teams, and vaguely recollected that Babe Ruth, then in the twilight of an illustrious career, dropped a fly ball and struck out a couple of times.

"Who were the greatest players you've seen since then," asked a young friend as he smoothed the fuzz on his chin.

"Well," we told him, "I'll try to give you my all-star team and see what you think of it."

Then we proceeded to list them as follows: First base—Lou Gehrig, Yankees; second base—Joe Gordon, Yankees; shortstop—Billy Jurges, Cubs; third base—Stan Hack, Cubs; outfield—Joe DiMaggio, Yankees; Stan Musial, Cardinals and Ted Williams, Red Sox; catcher—Bill Dickey, Yankees; Pitchers—Carl Hubbell, Giants; Red Ruffing, Yankees and Bob Feller, Indians.

It seemed unfair not to mention some others. We did. Joe Medwick, Ernie Lombardi, Mel Ott, Billy Herman, Jimmy Fox, "Hank" Greenberg, Marty Marion and Luke Appling, among others, came to mind. So did "Gaby" Hartnett, "Dizzy" Dean, Charley Gehring and Johnny Mize.

Medwick, in particular, was one of the best hitters we ever saw. In one game we witnessed as a youth (I think we sneaked into the ball park) the colorful "Ducky" slammed four hits, including a homer into the leftfield seats and another into the shorter rightfield stands at the Polo Grounds.

Lombardi, too, was an outstanding batter and a better defensive catcher than most people gave him credit for.

And Ott—who could field caroms off the rightfield wall in the Polo Grounds better than him? He hit 511 homers while seeming to balance himself on one leg.

Our selection of Jurges seemed to bother our young friend more than any of the others.

"What about Marion, Phil Rizzuto, Lou Boudreau and Leo Durocher?" he asked.

Actually, Jurges was the smoothest field shortstop in our memory. For hitting, Appling was tops—a fine stickman who hit to all fields, and well. Joe Cronin was a pretty good batter too.

Perhaps the reason we weren't so high on Fox is that old "Double X" always had a tough time in Yankee Stadium where we saw many of our games as a youngster. We can recall one Memorial Day doubleheader when Jimmy, a massive figure at the plate, went hitless in seven or eight at bats—and before—some 80,390 fans, too.

My young friend had only one comment to make on our "Di-Maggio, Williams and Musial" selection.

"What about Willie Mays?" he asked.

"He's just a youngster," we replied.

After dinner, we rushed to the nearest mirror. It seemed we had more gray hairs than we had realized.

Methodists, Catholic Top Court Foes

FIRST TEAM Methodists and the Catholics turned in victories in the most recent outing of the East Stroudsburg Church League. The doubleheader was played on the East Stroudsburg High School court.

The Methodists No. 1 took the measure of the Methodists No. 2.

E. S. Church League Standings
	W.	L.	Pct.	Points
Catholics	4	1	.800	100
Methodists No. 1	4	1	.800	100
Methodists No. 2	3	2	.600	75
Methodists No. 3	0	5	.000	0

79-42, in one half of the doubleheader, while the Catholics rolled to a 61-50 decision over the Lutherans in the other half of the bargain bill.

Bill Cooke led the Methodists No. 1 to their easy victory by scoring 27 points and leading his mates to the upper hand in three of the four periods. Methodists No. 2 had the better of the going in the second round, 10-7, but it wasn't nearly enough to turn the tide of battle.

The Catholics constructed a sizeable lead in the first three periods and then withstood a strong finish by the Lutherans in the last round. The Lutherans held a 25-18 advantage in the home stretch, but the spurt came far too late to change the complexion of the contest.

Nick Patella led the Catholics to victory with 23 points, but high scoring honors in the game went to Jim Terrill, Lutheran forward, who came up with 25 markers.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6 add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Owls Rally To Triumph Over Canaries In Junior Circuit

COACH JOHN PYLE'S Owls overcame a scoreless first period in a recent National League game in the Stroudsburg Junior High School intra-mural basketball program to take the measure of the Canaries, 25-14.

The game was played on the Stroudsburg High School court. Coach Clint Warner's Canaries jumped off to a 4-0 lead at the end of the first period, but were outscored in each of the remaining quarters and finished on the short end of the final count.

The Owls battled back to even the score at halftime, 8-8, with an 8-4 edge in the second period.

It was the same story in the second half as the Owls rolled to victory with a 7-2 edge in the third stanza and a 10-4 domination of the final period.

Every member of the winning team broke into the scoring column for at least two points, while Jimmy Kinney led the losing attack with six markers.

Annual World Day Of Prayer Services For All Regional Churches Set For Friday

THE ANNUAL World Day Of Prayer service for all churches of both boroughs and the surrounding rural parishes will be held tomorrow, at 2:30 p.m. in the First Presbyterian Church of Stroudsburg.

The service is conducted under the auspices of the General Department of United Church Women of the National Council of Churches of Christ in America.

The purpose of this service is to unite all Christians in a bond of prayer and in the United States, to make an offering for interdenominational missions projects.

In the World Day of Prayer service, Christians, as individuals, witness to their belief that prayer is a world power for good as a group, they unite to strengthen this power for good in the world.

In 1954 the day was observed in more than 19,000 communities in the United States and in 119 countries around the world. Each year the National World Day of Prayer committee asks a woman or a group of women from one of the countries observing World Day of Prayer to write the service.

Miss Jorgelina Lozada, of Buenos Aires, Argentina, has written the service for the 1955 observance of the World Day of Prayer.

She was one of the first two graduates of Instituto Model, now Union Seminary. She specialized in children's work, and in 1930 was ordained, and two years later became one of the very few Argentine women pastors. She was the first Latin American woman to serve on the Commission on Life and Work of Women in the Church, World Council of Churches.

Mrs. John R. Wellington is local chairman in charge of tomorrow's
